My dear Sir

I have no objection to the closing of the Courts in the City, in the interest of Public health. I do not think the Civil Courts need be closed unless the Govt is otherwise advised, because there we do not have to deal with witnesses & there is no crowd of people: only a few advocates

CONFIDENTIAL

Concerned in the work of the day –

I have had no representations yet from the Civil Courts or from Mysore, except a from Maddagiri & I have telegram from the Bar Assn from the Munsiff of Doddaballapur. I told the Maddagiri Munsiff to be liberal with adjournments & refrain from throwing out cases for default & to carry on as much as he could. Orders of a similar nature have gone to the Dt Judges. I expect if Bangalore Courts are closed we shall have representations from elsewhere, but I have been averse from closing except on the representations of health authorities or at the wish of the Govt. Besides Judges may be objected to do their work at the risk of some inconvenience or danger to themselves, & it is only if we are endangering the public health that we ought to close. I have some memoriales ill and asking for leave, but that can be arranged of course without closing the Courts:
